Hi Jenny,

I just wanted you to be aware of this as it might be interesting to put on the docket or in the complaint:

<http://phoenix.craigslist.org/evl/hvo/5169127478.html>

This process has drug out too long, so I am selling things off to help recoup some of the money I have lost in this whole mess and I am transferring what remains to my driver so he can do whatever he can to survive this. I am already starting on the ACC amendment paperwork to give him full authority over STWC.

Please note that I will be continuing this standpipe fight for the time being. Please don't think this gets to die just because I am removing myself from the hauling business. I still want to fight for not only my driver but also the rest of the community.
